DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 10-18, drawn to a method of determining the concentration of a glycosyl hydrolase by active site titration.

Group II, claim(s) 19-20, drawn to a method of screening for a property of a glycosyl hydrolase.

The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The common feature among the two groups is a method relating to active site titration of a glycosyl hydrolase using an inhibitor, however, this method was well-known in the art at the time the claimed invention was made (see, for example, Hansen et al, ChemBioChem 2000, as cited in the IDS filed on 14 February 2006, a new copy of the reference is attached for Applicant's convenience).

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Art Unit: 1655

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 13

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 14

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 15

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 31

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 57

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 63

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 13, as in claim 13

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 14, as in claim 14

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 15, as in claim 15

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 31, as in claim 16

Art Unit: 1655

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 57, as in claim 17

Glycosyl hydrolase belonging to family 63, as in claim 18

The following claim(s) are generic: 10, 11, 12, 19, and 20.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The various different enzymes belonging to the different glycosyl hydrolase families in claims 13-18 have a wide array of different properties, functions, and features, and are found in various different organisms. Therefore, these enzymes do not share a single general inventive concept that would unite them as having a special technical feature.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
